

Notes

1 As for the document screening, we will examine the total duration of your stay in the license issuing country, etc. after you obtained the license as detailed below.

- 1) A total of three months or more to convert to a Japanese license or Driver's License Information Record Individual Number Card (hereafter "license, etc.")
 - 2) A total of one year or more to be exempt from the obligation to attach a Beginner's Mark
 - 3) A total of one year or more to ride double on a motorcycle on the ordinary road
 - 4) A total of three years or more to ride double on a motorcycle on the expressway
- * Please note that the duration of your stay that can be verified with a passport varies depending on the country, etc.
- * You may not ride double on a motorcycle if the duration of your stay in the license issuing country after you obtained your license is a total of three months or more but less than one year.

A total of one year or more by combining the durations of your stay in the license issuing country and Japan is required to ride double on the ordinary road.

A total of three years or more by combining the durations of your stay in the license issuing country and Japan is required to ride double on the expressway.

2 Application for a large/medium vehicle license

- 1) In order to apply for a large/medium vehicle license, you need to have a regular or semi-medium vehicle license.
- 2) You need to pass the depth perception test for semi-medium/medium/large vehicle license. Even if you fail the test, the aptitude test fees cannot be refunded.

3 The maximum number of license categories you can apply for at a time

You can apply for only one category except for the following cases.

- 1) Your license has been issued in the country or region (28 countries and 1 region) under exemption and you have a license for two or more categories (e.g. regular vehicle and motorcycle).
- 2) You have an expired Japanese driving license, etc. and a valid foreign driving license and the both licenses have been issued for the same categories (e.g. regular vehicle and motorcycle).

4 Those who have multiple nationalities

On the day of your reservation, please bring all of your passports, etc., including expired ones, issued in each country.

 If one of the following conditions applies, your application may be rejected as a result of screening.

- 1 You have already passed a driving license test at a Driving License Test Center outside Tokyo, but not yet received a driving license, etc.
- 2 You have already received your driving license (not including a provisional license).
- 3 You have lost your driving license, etc., but not yet got one reissued.
- 4 Your driving license is currently suspended or you are disqualified from taking a driving license test.
- 5 You (including international driving permit holders) committed a serious traffic offence such as driving without license, driving under the influence of alcohol, joint dangerous act, or failure to give aid after an accident.
