

COMMUNITY POLICE AFFAIRS BUREAU

KOBAN

警視庁築地警察署数寄屋橋交番

Standing watch

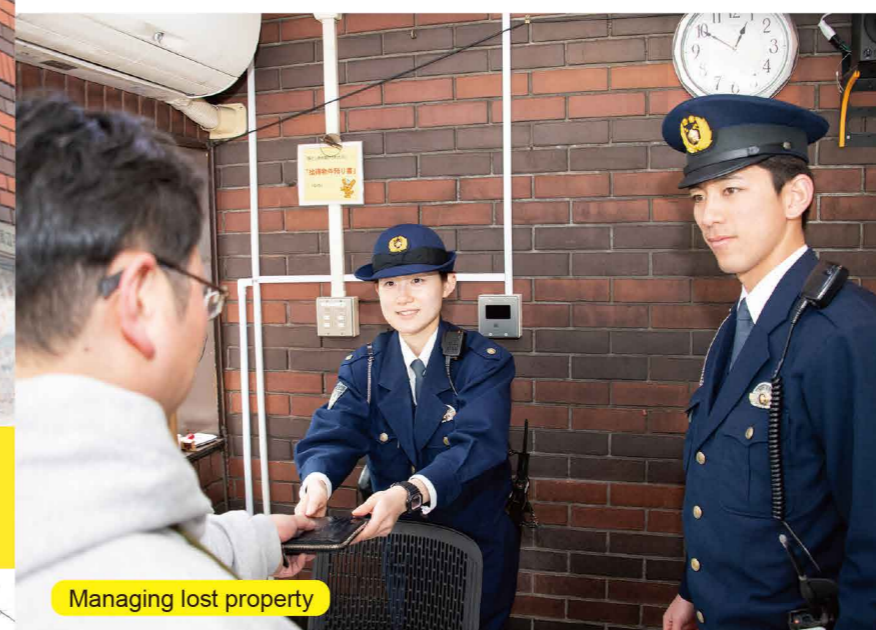

STAYING CLOSE TO LOCAL COMMUNITIES

Police questioning

Door-to-door house visit

Managing lost property

Heading to the scene

Giving directions

Patrol

Intensive patrolling during year-end and New Year holidays

TMPD officers based at kobans (police boxes) or residential police boxes go on patrol, give directions, and offer advice for citizens. In response to an emergency 110 call, they head to the scene immediately to address the situation.

They also provide local residents with information on recent crimes and natural disasters, and make collaborative efforts with them to prevent crime, keeping Tokyo safe and secure.