

COMMUNITY POLICE AFFAIRS BUREAU

STAYING CLOSE TO LOCAL COMMUNITIES

Standing watch

Patrol

Giving directions

Door-to-door house visit

Managing lost property

TMPD officers based at kobans (police boxes) or residential police boxes go on patrol, give directions, and offer advice for citizens. In response to an emergency 110 call, they head to the scene immediately to address the situation.

They also provide local residents with information on recent crimes and natural disasters, and make collaborative efforts with them to prevent crime, keeping Tokyo safe and secure.

Police questioning

Heading to the scene

Intensive patrolling during year-end and New Year holidays